Text

Once upon a time, there was a boy who lived in England. When the boy's parents died in an accident, he moved to Norway to live with his grandmother. Some time later, the boy and his grandmother moved to England. One summer, they went to a hotel in Bournemouth. While the boy was playing with his pet mice in a conference room in the hotel, he found out the witches' plan to kill all the children in England.

Suddenly, Bruno Jenkins, another boy, entered the room and the witches transformed him into a mouse. Later, the witches found the boy too and also transformed him into a mouse. The two boys, now two mice, ran to the grandmother's room and asked her for help. Finally, the boy and his grandmother decided to kill the witches.
