1. Retrouve la phrase.

1. you / not / are / English
2. nationality / is / what / your /?
3. parents / you / with / are / your /?
4. my / father / is / this / not
5. not / Molly / is / pilot / the

2. Complète par am, is, ou are avec ou sans not.

1. James ... English.
2. Julie ... English.
3. I ... American. I ... French.
4. James, ... you with your father? No, I ...
5. Mrs Mason ... Julie's mother.

3. Corrige ces affirmations fausses en utilisant not.

1. James is American.
2. Molly is a passenger.
3. Julie's name is Wilson.
4. Mr Mason is in New York.
5. Julie and her mother are in a taxi.

7- Recopie et complète par she/he ou her/his

1. This is my father. ... is 31.
2. ... first name is Derek.
3. My sister is 5. ... friend is 6.
4. I like Mozart. ... music is beautiful.
5. Here is my friend. ... name is Bill.

4. Retrouve la phrase, puis restitue les majuscules et la ponctuation.

1. jamesisanenglishboy
2. julieisanamericangirl
3. whereismollyfrom
4. captaincooperisthepilot
5. whoisthecopilot

5. Remplace les noms soulignés par des pronoms.

1. Jim Ricotti is a gangster.
2. Is Flo Rondo a secretary?
3. Julie is American.
4. James is from London.
5. Inspector Smith is from Scotland Yard.

6. Que dirais-tu pour... ?

1. saluer quelqu'un le matin.
2. saluer quelqu'un en fin de journée.
3. saluer un copain.
4. dire merci.
5. présenter un camarade.