Hi folks!

Remember your Australian friend? ☺ Well, here's some news.

It's a beautiful Saturday afternoon and the sun is shining. I am staying at my uncle's for the weekend. I am sitting in the garden writing to you and listening to my favourite music. I'm drinking some nice cool soda and the cat is sleeping next to me. My cousin is repairing his mountain bike and my aunt is reading her book under the tree.

And what about you? What are you all doing? It's 10 pm back in London, so I am sure you are fast asleep! lol

I am back at school now and this year I am taking European history. It is very interesting and I love it when I can say: "I know that place!"

I miss you. Take care.

Love,

Sharon xxx
